

NHS Low Income Scheme

Proof of self-employed income

If you or your partner are self-employed, you must include evidence with your application for help with health costs.

You can either:

- send a copy of your profit and loss accounts, or
- complete this form using the information from the company's trading accounts.

The evidence must cover a period of between 6 and 15 months, ending within the last 12 months.

If you or your partner are self-employed with more than one business, you need to provide proof of income for each business separately.

We cannot accept HM Revenue and Customers self-assessment forms as evidence of self-employed income.
